

Danielle Lindler, RPF, PCA

Danielle Lindler is the executive director of KARE, Klamath Alliance for Resources & Environment. In addition, her and her husband, Dustin, own and operate Jefferson Resource Company, Inc, a consulting forestry and biological services firm in Weed, CA. She started her forestry curriculum in 1992 at Sierra College and then transferred to Humboldt State University. She graduated in 1997 with a B.S in Forestry with an emphasis in Forest Production and a minor in Environmental Ethics. Danielle is a Registered Professional Forester and a Pest Control Advisor.

Membership & Certificates

Klamath Alliance for Resources and the Environment (KARE), 2004-present
California Forestry Association, Member, 2003-present
California Licensed Forester Association, Member 1997- present
California Growth & Yield Modeling Cooperative, Chairman 2004 to present
California Forest Vegetation Management Conference, Program Coordinator 2008-present
California Forest Vegetation Management Conference, Chairman, 2005.
California Forest Vegetation Management Conference, Vice Chairman, 2004.
California Forest Vegetation Management Conference, Secretary/Treasurer- 2002-2003
California Forest Pest Council, Weed Tour, Program Committee 2001-present.
Mt. Shasta Area Fire Safe Council, Education Committee, Chairman 2003-2004.
Mt. Shasta Area Fire Safe Council, Grant Writing Committee, 2003-present.
Society of American Foresters, Nor-Cal State Treasurer, 2003-2005.
Society of American Foresters, Wyntoon Chapter Past Treasurer, 1997 to 2003.
California Women in Timber, Board of Director, 2002-2006.
California Women in Timber, County Representative to State Board, 2001-2002.
Farm Bureau, Member 2004-present.
American Quarter Horse Association, Lifetime Member, 1988-present
Registered Professional Forester #2691
Pest Control Advisor #70419
California Archaeology Training Certificate, Course #84R